Oshidori International Development Donates 10 million JPY to Launch Initiative to Support Children in Nagasaki on Children's Day

Nagasaki, Japan – 27 April 2021: Oshidori International Development Godogaisha (“Oshidori”), a Japanese company established for the purpose of developing an integrated resort (“IR”) in Nagasaki, announced today the launch of an initiative to support the children of Nagasaki, with the aim of developing an IR that can contribute to the resolution of regional issues as well as creating an ideal city for generations to come. On May 5 Children's Day, Oshidori will donate 10 million JPY through Kyushu Oshidori Children’s Foundation to seven child welfare institutions in Nagasaki as part of its Children's Day initiative.

In addition to developing a world-class IR in Nagasaki and enhancing the Nagasaki and Kyushu tourism industry, Oshidori aims to create a new community and city where everyone wishes to live in. The donation was made through the Kyushu Oshidori Children's Foundation, in the hope that the children of Nagasaki - the city's treasure - can grow up feeling positive about their future. The 10 million JPY donation to seven Nagasaki based institutions includes Uragami Yoikuin, Okuura Jikeiin, Kibounohi Gakuen, Seibo-no-Kishien, Habataki Shienkai, Maria-en, and Wakatake-ryo. In 2019, the number of child abuse cases in Nagasaki reached a record high, and an increasing number of children have little to no job aspiration because they are forced to choose a career without feeling much hope, due to issues related to poverty, such as having low income from non-regular job employment. Oshidori hopes the donation will create impact to directly improve quality of education for the younger generation and provide more opportunities for underprivileged children.

Moe Murakami, Oshidori’s Director of CSR commented, “When we were considering what the company should do on Children’s Day, which traditionally is a day to appreciate and celebrate the life of children, we learned that there are concerning issues such as child abuse. When we think about Nagasaki’s future, it is very important that its people are truly happy. In this ever-changing modern world, children are our future leaders, therefore they should be treasured. With this thought in mind, Oshidori is launching this initiative with a clear message; we wish that the children of Nagasaki can go to sleep every night with bright hopes for tomorrow. Oshidori will continue to make social efforts and contributions so that the people of Nagasaki have more confidence in their city, and love their city even more.”

Through this initiative, Oshidori helps children living in Nagasaki to lead confident lives without giving up nutritious food, daily necessities, and school supplies. Oshidori is committed to the realization of the Nagasaki IR project and the development of local industries, and we will continuously strive to be a good corporate citizen and help Nagasaki's children based on Oshidori's 4S principles.

Oshidori 4S Corporate Values

Oshidori hopes to contribute and support Nagasaki Prefecture with letter "S" keywords taken from its corporate values:

- 3: Life (Seikatsu) -- Contribute to daily life in Nagasaki
- 4: State-of-the-art (Saisentan) -- Contribute to the state-of-the-art of Nagasaki

Oshidori's celebration of Children's Day and the launch initiative puts focus on "Nurture", one of the 4S values. In addition to this donation, the Kyushu Oshidori Children's Foundation will contribute to improving the quality of education and developing the potential of children of all ages through scholarships, foreign language teaching, study abroad, internships, entertainment and hospitality programs, and student sports. It also contributes to the improvement of the quality of education and the development of the potential of children. Oshidori's IR will also play a role in the reform of work styles by creating a culture and structure that supports the balancing of work and childcare, including the development of childcare centers.
